

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Sunrise, 7:18; sunset, 4:28.

Fred Bartlett, new city treasurer, took desk in City Hall yesterday.

Mrs. Chas. Heit, 6346 Sheridan rd., asked divorce. Says husband scared her with gun.

Augustine Kline, 13, who eloped from Elgin and married, taken home.

Mrs. Mamie Hunczyk, asking divorce, says she was married while under influence of liquor.

Wm. McDonald, vice pres. I. X. L. Mfg. Co., held to grand jury on $2,000 fraud charge.

Chief of Police Healey took star from Policeman Thos. Gibbons, accused as member of thief trust.

Chas. McGee, director Clarendon beach, made skating pond for kids; cost city 15 cents for nails.

Policemen Clarence Giles, Ed Tuohy and Ray Gilso, W. Chicago av. station, praised by Chief Healey.

Harold Mortell, 1426 S. Union av., held to grand jury for murder of George Floss, 1664 W. 15th. Self defense, he says.

Gas consumers of Wilmette and Waukegan get reduction in rate of about 10 cents a thousand.

Henry Golinski, 10 months, 1040 N. Lincoln, fell on chair. Fractured skull. Dead.

Mrs. George Weigle, wife of cashier who embezzled $7,000 from Harris Trust Co., got divorce. Infidelity.

Angelo Lorenzo, 4, 2707 W. Chicago av., fell into boiler of hot water on floor. Dead.

Charles Roberts, Indian, 1218 W. Washington blvd., got divorce. Says white wife was not true to him.

Jos. Reke, 2221 Cortland, arrested for alleged theft of coats from garage.

Forest Preserve Comm'n decided to get 70 acres between Milwaukee, Caldwell, Devon and North Shore ays.

Lucius Fyfe, former Fed league umpire, hit by suit for separate maintenance. Other women alleged.

Dr. Hugh Betz to get old job as sup't Iroquois Memorial hospital.

Clara Matyasik, 8, 2507 Augusta, got lost while seeking brother, also missing. Both found.

Forest Preserve Comm'n got tract of land near Deerfield for $13,929.

E. G. Sullivan, 615 E. 50th, arrested for failure to support wife. Was willing to live with her; case continued.

Harlan Stone elected president of Ass'n of American Law Schools.

Jasko Semkowich on trial; shot Mrs. Anna Oskowich in neck. She was cold to him because he was bald.

Michael Wehern, undertaker, Matteson, Ill., killed by fall on icy sidewalk.

Mrs. Herbert Gebaur, member Alaska trio skating at Palace theater, quit because of trouble with husband, also in trio.

Paul Blumenthal, shoe jobber, grabbed by Judge Landis when he "couldn't remember" details of transaction in bankruptcy case.

Mrs. Jane Williamson, 1355 Elm-dale av., wrote letters to neighbor calling him "hubby." Husband got divorce.

Adolph Kausal, 3308 Beach av., won divorce suit. Wife gave him "love powders" which made him ill.

Richard Kirby, 6424 Ridge av., fell off car at Oak and Clark sts. Dead.

Henry Jackson, 5254 S. Dearborn, negro, arrested when he started on rampage with gun and knife. None hurt.

Louis Cheromokos, saloonkeeper, 1521 N. Clark, discharged on complaint of keeping open after 1 a. m.

Frank Mix, tubercular patient at County hospital, suicided by six-story leap.

Ernest Falkenberg indicted by federal grand jury. Sent threatening letters.

Ruth Baney, 4026 Grand blvd., arrested; went to office of George Medue, Old Colony bldg., with revolver.